

240th Anniversary of the Battle of Camden Weekend Getaway Package

August 13-15, 2020

Thursday, August 13, 2020

2 p.m. - Arrive at Revolutionary War Park, 222 Broad Street, Camden, SC 29020

Exclusive guided tour of the Kershaw-Cornwallis House, home of Joseph Kershaw, Camden's first mayor, among many other accomplishments, and the namesake of Kershaw County, and headquarters of General Cornwallis during the Revolutionary War. Burned during the Civil War, the house was painstakingly rebuilt in the 1970's. The tour will include other historical buildings on the grounds including McCaa's Tavern and the Craven House.

At the conclusion of the tour, you will be free to explore the grounds on your own before checking in to your accommodations.

7:00 p.m. - Dinner at Mill Pond Steakhouse, 84 Mill Pond Road, Rembert, SC 29021

Meet at Mill Pond Steakhouse for four-course meal with wine pairings in an historical and scenic setting. Before or after dinner, make a quick stop on your own at the nearby restored Swift Creek Baptist Church (est. 1787).

Friday, August 14, 2020

Complimentary breakfast on your own at Bloomsbury Inn.

10:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. - Camden Battlefield and Longleaf Pine Preserve, 1606 Flat Rock Road, Camden, SC 29020

Exclusive guided tour of the site of the 1780 Battle of Camden, the turning point battle of the Revolution, concluding with a bag lunch at McCaa's Tavern. Dress in weather-appropriate clothing/shoes for hiking in a forest. Bug spray will be provided!

12:30 p.m. - Battle of Hobkirk's Hill, 107 Kirkwood Lane, Camden, 29020

Tour of Hobkirk's Hill Battlefield, situated in historic downtown Camden, and discussion of the 1781 battle. At the conclusion of the tour you may enjoy an afternoon on your own. Your welcome packet will include listings of shopping in downtown Camden, self-guided tours and other notable and historical local attractions.

6 p.m. - McCaa's Tavern, Revolutionary War Park

Celebrate Historic Camden's 50th Anniversary and commemorate the British Occupation of Camden with snacks and libations. Dinner (if you wish) on your own and retire to your accommodations at your leisure.

Saturday, August 15, 2020

Breakfast on your own at Bloomsbury Inn.

9 a.m. - Battle of Camden Commemoration, Camden Battlefield and Longleaf Pine Preserve

Begin your day with a remembrance ceremony and wreath laying at the Battlefield. Following the ceremony, enjoy free admission to the Revolutionary War Park for living history experiences and demonstrations going on all day or explore Camden and surrounding areas on your own, and depart at your leisure.

Packages include all experiences (RAIN OR SHINE) and dining as described above as well as accommodations. Additional nights may be added by contacting the accommodations directly. To maintain physical distancing, guest will be responsible for transporting themselves throughout the weekend.
