

HISTORIC LODGING KERSHAW HOUSE

Historic Camden is seeking funding to renovate upper floor rooms into historic lodging in the Kershaw House.

The northeast side space on the third floor will become a guest room with a full bath. A second full bathroom, accessible from the hall, will be added for guests using the two bedrooms on the southern side of hallway.

One room on the southern side of the bedroom floor will be staged as Lord Rawdon's room and the other as that of his aid or personal servant. These rooms will be open to the public when not in use.
