MEETING HOUSE CONSTRUCTION

Historic Camden is seeking funding for the construction of a Colonial Meeting House with a Museum & Gallery

The Meeting House will be south of the Memorial Garden and adjacent to the Old Presbyterian Burial Ground, where the Unknown Continental Soldiers of the Camden Burial Project are interred. It will function as a place of reflection and will feature a museum and gallery.

MEETING HOUSE MUSEUM & GALLERY

Historic Camden is seeking funding for museum exhibits and large scale panels.

Historic Camden will work with the American Battlefield Trust to create exhibits within the museum & gallery that will recount the story of the Camden Burial Project and the ongoing Conflict Archeology and Forensic Genealogy.
